

The Chancellor Robert R Livingston

Masonic Library Of Grand Lodge

Collecting, Studying & Preserving the Masonic Heritage

2008 Library Dinner Lecture Series

"Freemasonry And The Arts", a lecture and discussion presented by a panel of Masonic researchers and scholars from around the United States. Speakers are:

- Robert L. Barrows (Grand Organist of the Grand Lodge of New York), who will discuss "Freemasonry and Music," and its interplay with ritual: "The whole is greater than the sum of its parts."
- Ari Roussimoff (Consolidated Lodge No.31, New York City), who will discuss "Freemasonry and Painting/Sculptures." Brother Roussimoff's work projects the philosophic and moral codes of our Craft. His paintings grace the walls of the Livingston Library in New York.
- Robert G. Davis (General Secretary of the Valley of Guthrie, OK), who will discuss "Freemasonry and the Theatre Arts." Brother Davis is widely recognized as one of our fraternity's premier Masonic scholars and speakers.

Monday, December 8 (business attire)

La Petite Auberge Restaurant

116 Lexington Avenue, at 28th Street

6 pm - Reception (cash bar)

7 pm - Lecture and five-course dinner (includes wine, beer, soda, coffee)

Lecture is open to all; only 50 seats are available

Subscriptions are $80*

Submit a list of attendees and Lodge, together with your check PRIOR TO December 1

NO TICKETS AT THE DOOR

Checks payable to Livingston Masonic Library

Livingston Library

71 West 23rd Street

New York, NY 10010-4171

Sponsors are also invited to participate.

Contact the Library at 212-337-6620

*A portion may be tax-deductible. Consult your tax professional.

Enclosed is my subscription of $ _____ for _____ seats ($80/person). Those attending are:

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____

(name/lodge) _____